3. Loans for Small and Medium Enterprises (Challenge Support Funding: Offered by Financial Institutions)

- The interest rate is fixed by each financial institution but Osaka Prefecture will make deposits in those institutions to bring down the interest rate.
- Please enquire with the concerned financial institution since the loan limit, lending period, and loan conditions differ from institution to institution and depend on the loan programs of each institution.
- A variety of loan programs are offered to financially support the efforts of “striving small and medium enterprises (SMEs)” and others. For more details, please refer to the financing options available in the following web page; <http://www.pref.osaka.lg.jp/kinyushien/seido001/index.html>

Note) If you are actually thinking about taking a loan, please consult the concerned institution in advance and confirm the requirements to utilize the loan. The loan information given above is intended merely to give an overview and does not promise financing or give any guarantees about the loan.
