

H. E. Dr. Ganesh Yonzan TAMANG, Ambassador of Nepal to Japan, invited to Osaka by O-BIC

O-BIC had the honor of inviting H. E. Dr. Ganesh Yonzan Tamang, Ambassador of Nepal to Japan, to Osaka on June 5th 2009.

Ambassador Tamang made courtesy calls on Mr. K. Hiramatsu, Mayor of Osaka, Mr. Y. Funato, President, Osaka City Council, and Mr. S. Hara, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary for Kansai Region at the Foreign Affairs Ministry's Osaka Liaison Office, and also made tours of inspection of Osaka's facilities and activities, on board Osaka City's PR boat "YUMESAKI" and from the observatory at the top of the World Trade Center building overlooking the Ports of Osaka and surroundings and also visited the ATC building. Ambassador Tamang exchanged views with all those he met, particularly with us of O-BIC at our meeting.

Ambassador Tamang said that setting up some form of Nepal's representative office in Osaka has always been in his mind. He also said there has been a change of regime in the home country but he is optimistic about the prospect for opening the Osaka Office and would like Osaka to give its very best support for this matters. We at O-BIC are encouraged by his forward-looking view and will continue to provide our best support and cooperation.
