DOING BUSINESS in HONG KONG and JAPAN

Thursday, 3 May 2018

A half-day seminar will be jointly organised by the Law Society of Hong Kong and Osaka Bar Association on 3 May 2018 at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (“HKIAC”). The seminar is targeting business and individual audiences who are considering, planning and implementing their investments in Hong Kong and Japan, especially in Kansai area. Speakers will cover topics include company law, employment law, and benefit of using local corporation when doing businesses in Hong Kong and Kansai area.

Topics include company law, employment law, and benefits of using local corporation when doing businesses in Osaka will be covered in the seminar. Representatives from the Osaka Bar Association, the Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong and Hong Kong Japanese Chamber of Commerce & Industry will be invited to speak and share their insights at the seminar.

A short networking session will be followed after the seminar. This is a great opportunity for members who wanted to expand their businesses and connections in Japan to attend. Particulars of the event are as below:
