

The 23rd Osaka Business Networking Club “Promoting New Work Styles in Osaka, Kansai: Why in Kansai? WeWork’s Challenges and Vision”

Lecture by Mr. Stewart Tudor, General Manager of WeWork Japan West

The coming Osaka Business Networking Club* will be held with guest speaker Mr. Stewart Tudor, General Manager of West Japan of WeWork, a global fast-growing New-York based co-working space provider. He will deliver a lecture covering topics such as his unique experience with a foreign company doing business in Japan as a regional representative, why WeWork is focusing on Osaka, Kansai and his vision about the company’s future business in western Japan. A tour of WeWork and a regular networking meeting will also be offered. We look forward to the participation of many people to offer useful hints for future business opportunities and developing networks in Osaka.

*Osaka Business Networking Club: A regular networking event held by the three organizations that established O-BIC, the Osaka Business and Investment Center—Osaka Prefecture, Osaka City (IBPC Osaka), and the Osaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (OCCI)—to promote mutual exchanges between companies and other organizations from overseas that have launched operations in Osaka with support from O-BIC and Osaka-based Japanese companies, thus providing new business opportunities for both sides

Stewart Tudor Biography

Stewart Tudor joined WeWork in early 2018 as the General Manager of West Japan. In this role, he directly leads and manages the expansion of WeWork’s growing presence in key markets throughout West Japan. Opening new markets of Osaka and Fukuoka in December 2018, Stewart also led the launch of Nagoya in May, and next will open WeWork’s first location in Sannomiya, Kobe this coming November. Stewart joined WeWork from Portland, Oregon, where he was the General Manager of Nike Stores for Asia-Pacific and Latin America. Prior to Nike, Stewart worked in Real Estate for CBRE in both Tokyo and New York City. Stewart earned his bachelor’s degree from Boston University.
